O. H. S. ROUSER

For the Onancock High School
Has come true,
To teach you what to know
And what to do,
For it is ever as
The days of yore,
The best school on
The Eastern Shore-
The Eastern Shore.

All honor glory
To the O. H. S.
There's nothing coming
To you but success,
For the Onancock High
School's got the pep,
Yes you bet! O. H. S.

VICTORY SONG

Cheer, cheer for O. H. S.
Wake up the echos
Cheering your best,
Send a volley cheer on high
Shake down the thunder
From the sky.
What though the odds
Be great or small
O.H.S. will win over all,
While our loyal sons
Are marching onward to victory.

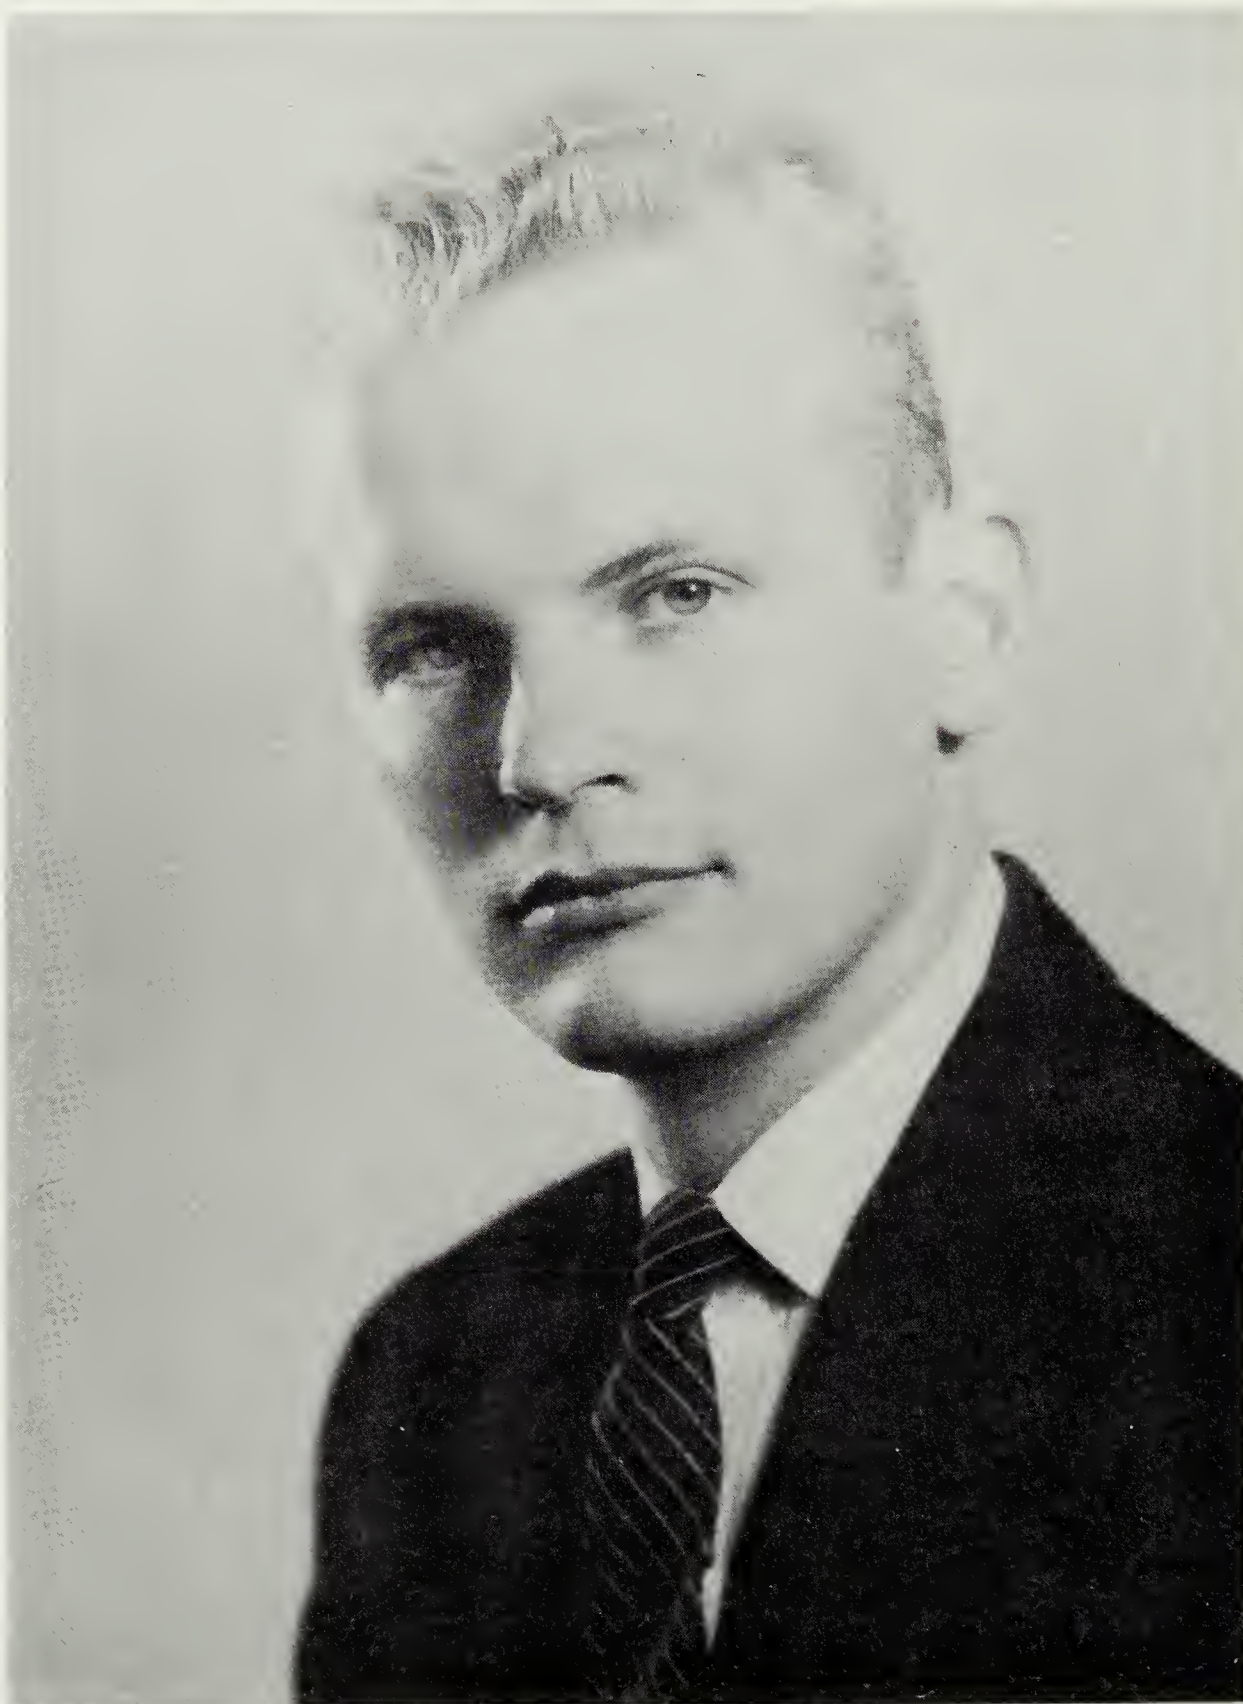

ONANCOCK GOIN' SHINE

Onancock Goin' shine tonight,
Onancock goin' shine;
Onancock goin' shine tonight
All down the line,
Onancock goin' shine tonight,
Onancock goin' shine;
When the sun goes down,
And the moon comes up
Onancock goin' shine!

Dedication

To a man who in a short time has endeared himself to each of us through his understanding, innumerable capabilities, sincerity and interest in the individual, we, the Senior class of Onancock High School do proudly dedicate this 1960 Beacon to you, Mr. Arthur King Fisher.

ADMINISTRATION

Our Principal

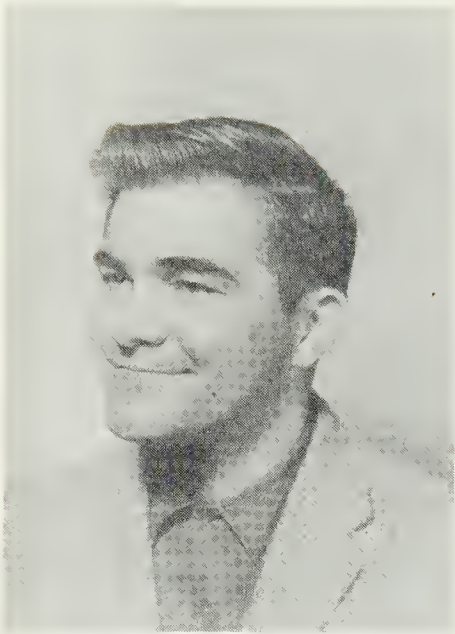

As Principal, Mr. Earl G. Hoppes has helped to enrich life at O.H.S. through his understanding, sense of fair play, loyalty, courage, unswerving counsel and friendship for all. May we be ever mindful of the example which he has set for us.

Class History

It's 1960, and soon our class of 1960, O.H.S.' beloved seniors, will be saying their fond good-byes to the Old Alma Mater. Just for fun let's glance back through the pages of time and see how these mature, august scholars looked, say four years ago.

In the fall of 1956 Onancock High School opened its arms to receive one of the rowdiest, most talkative classes in it's history. We were then divided into two groups, one having as a home room teacher Nancy Ashby, the other having Yvonne Richardson. Among the first duties we had to perform as a class was the election of class officers. They were: President, Jimmy Lassiter; Vice President, Martha Hartman; Secretary, Ida Lynn Harmon; and Treasurer, Mack Lazenby. After these preliminaries we placed our shoulders under the load of a full schedule with different classes and teachers than those we had known before. It was swim or sink and we swam, conquering the obstacles of half and full year exams, six-weeks tests and report cards. We passed into the 10th grade almost as a body, some 60 pupils strong.

Come fall of 1957 Father Time found us again entering the Ivy Halls of our citadel of learning. Yvonne Richardson and Nancy Senn take over the chore of handling this unruly bunch of "wise fools", and at many times our behavior is truly Sophomoric. We were sorry to lose Harold Glick, Mildred Mapp, and Bobby Brashears. Harold and Bobby left us for Randolph Macon and Mildred went to St. Katherine's. Our sophomore officers were: Tommy Mears, President; Kendal East, Vice President; Secretary, Carolyn Courtney; and Treasurer, Mack Lazenby.

Somewhere along the line it dawned on us that we must have money to pay for our prom and other projects that might arise. With our Treasurer, Mack Lazenby as whip, we held a monumental series of bakes and dances at the end of the year our class coffers were considerably richer. A select few of our classmates this year attended the Athletic Ball and prom.

When the month of September again rolls inexorably around we find ourselves Juniors. This year will be very full for us with class rings, the Junior play, and the prom. This year found the destiny of our class placed in the hands of Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Wood. When the time rolled around for our play with the tryouts, practices, and the other jobs which always go with a play, confusion sometime seemed to be the general goal. However the play, Bolts and Nuts, was very well accepted and enjoyed by all. With half-year exams over it was prom time. After several heated discussions over the theme, colors and decorations which threatened to make the class a house divided, we decided to make "May Day" our theme and have Mark Hilburn's orchestra. The big night finally rolled around and we all, I'm sure, had a wonderful time and we also enjoyed the party at Jane Harrris' house after the prom. During this year we chose the following officers to help guide our destiny: President, Tommy Mears; Vice President, Carolyn Courtney; Secretary, Donna Phillips; and Treasurer, Linda Sweitzer. Another memorable achievement of the class of '60 was the founding of "Voice of the Campus", Onancock High's own newspaper. Mrs. Richardson who had been our friend and counselor for three years left us and the role of English teacher was ably taken up by Arthur K. Fisher. Father Time by this time finds many new faces in the class and finds that the size has dropped from 60 odd to 48 students. Of all our good times we will never forget our Junior year.

It seems such a short time from that day 3 years ago when we were Freshmen, but here we are Seniors. To our principal, Mr. Hoppes, our home room teachers, Mrs. Marie Pennewell and Mr. Fisher and all our other teachers of this and past years we wish to convey our sincere appreciation for their patience and understanding in helping us regardless of the fact that it added to the already heavy load of their regular duties.

We elected the following officers: President, Barbie Miles; Vice President, Tom Barber; Treasurer, Linda Sweitzer; and Secretary, Jo Anne Gunter. The treasury, emptied by our Senior play, had to be refilled for our class trip to New York. We presented our Senior play "Grandad Goes Wild" in December and I hear that it was very well received. With name cards, thank-you notes and invitations, we begin to realize what being a Senior means. Many of us are applying for colleges and prep schools with an eye to the future.

With the ordering of caps and gowns, every day brings us closer to the realization of our goal, graduation. All of these little trials and tribulations added to the memories we will always treasure from our Senior days at O.H.S.

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

Footprints that perhaps another Sailing o'er life's solemn main
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother
Seeing shall take heart again.

Let us then be up and doing
With a heart for any fate
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

Whatever walks of life we may follow, let's all try to recall these immortal words from Longfellow's "Psalm of Life" and try to make our "footprints" in the sands of time clear and deep so that they will mark the path for others.

Class Prophecy

The class of 1960 held their class reunion in the sacred halls of Onancock High School. Talking over current affairs and reminiscing over old times was enjoyed by all.

Tom Barber who always had a way with words is now the star of "Keep Laughing."

Cecil Bennett, the gas pump of the class, is now the president of the Ethyltone Gas Co.

Mary Upshur Boggs, our expert in Home Economics, has now printed her own cook book "Cooking With Mary."

Barbara Ann Cobb could not attend our reunion because she is secretary to the Governor at the state General Assembly.

George Cherrix and Tommy Kellam, who once played football together for O.H.S., whose teams are now beating it out for the World Championship.

Carolyn Courtney has written us saying a talent scout spotted her while car hopping in Hollywood and we wish her lots of luck.

Jimmy Custis, the red-head of our class is now chairman of the board of Vitalis and Co.

Billy Drewer is now working for the Ford Motor Company and just drove up in their latest model.

Kendal East, who has just completed decorating the Rockefeller Mansion, won an award for being one of the top ten decorators in the country.

Emily Edwards, Pauline Isdell, Rosalie Scott, and Robin Mason who are happily married brought their families which kept us active through the whole reunion. The children were certainly cute.

Jo Anne Gunter, who was always quiet, now writes the jokes for Red Skelton.

Ida Lynn Harmon and Barbie Miles are now running an exclusive dress shop in Paris.

Nancy Harmon, who received so much fan mail, is now post mistress of the Melfa Post Office.

Martha Hartman, who loved those football boys is now following the Washington Redskins.

Jonica Jones, who danced in all the Follies, is now dancing with the Rockettes.

Joe Kamps has just received honors from the government for flying a modified A 3D non-stop to the moon. Congratulations.

Linda Sweitzer, who always wanted to be a nurse, is now working at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Faye Layne, who was the singer of the class, is now singing with the Metropolitan Opera.

Jimmy Lassiter, who is the life of the party, has been telling us how he made one million toothpicks from one Lassiter Co. log.

Brooks Mears, the poet of the class, has just published his new book "Poems to Fish by."

Tommy Mears, who starred in all high school sports, is now teaching the Africans to play baseball.

Vera Nicolls, whose interests always centered around horses, had Wayne Smullin ride one of her horses to the finish at Churchill Downs.

Donna Phillips we are sorry to say could not attend, for she is attending an art convention with Linda Robbins.

Emily Pruitt and Sandra Williams, who were always good friends, are co-editors of "Consumers Guide."

Larry Pruitt, who got married our Senior year, has just celebrated his Tenth Anniversary. We all extended him many more happy ones.

Martin Reade, a confirmed bachelor, is now Justice of the Peace and is marrying everybody.

Amiee Savage, who was our best French pupil, is now an interpreter for the United Nations.

Dottie Kay Smith and Mary Asher Shrieves, who always made such good candy for the class bakes, are working for Whitman's Sampler.

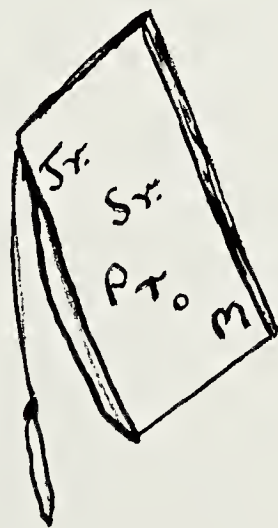

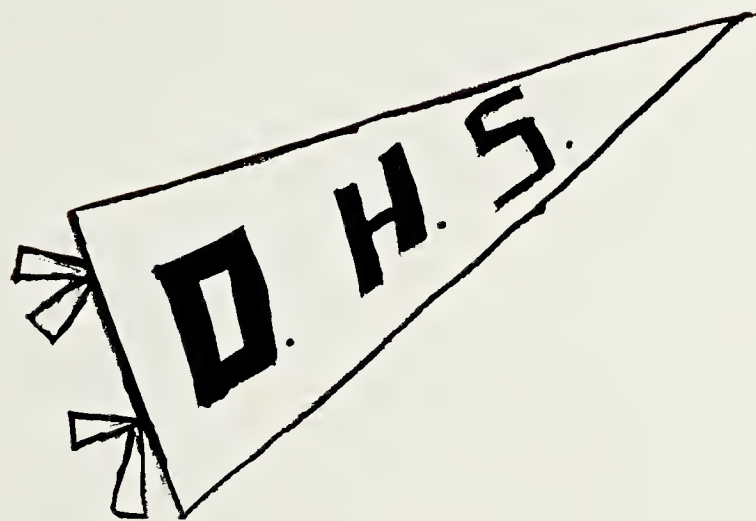

Bill Wallace, who was the strongest one in our class, is now weight lifting for Charles Atlas.

Sylvia Scott, last but not least, has made great success in writing nursery rhymes.

Now that our reunion has come to a close we wonder what the next ten years will bring.

VOICE of the CAMPUS

STAFF

Last year the Seniors, trying to think of a way of making money, came up with the idea of having a high school newspaper. Their bi-weekly edition of the "Voice of the Campus" became something eagerly anticipated by everyone. Finding themselves too busy this year, the Seniors decided to make the paper a part of the heritage of each Junior Class.

This fall we found ourselves inexperienced and confused, but soon our paper became a center of interest. As the school session comes to an end we would like to pass it down to the Juniors of 1960-61.

Our gratitude is extended to the Seniors for giving us the paper, and also to our loyal students who have supported it.

Senior Class Poem

Tom Barber with his witty tongue delights both the old and young.

Cecil Bennett is the hardworker of our class;
his diligence is not easily surpassed.

George Cherrix has a wonderful personality;
it's unusual to find someone like him in reality.

Jimmy Custis didn't like government, but did well in lover-her-ment.

Billy Drewer is our independent young man;
he'll do anything for you if he can.

Joe Kamps with his serious face has a brain no one could ever replace.

Tommy Kellam, captain of our football team, always kept those champs on the beam.

Jimmy Lassiter loved a football game without him O. H. S. won't be the same.

Mack Lazenby, who liked to fly high, will be on cloud nine if you want to see him go by.

Tommy Mears is our handsome lad; it's no wonder the girls went mad.

Larry Pruitt is the Senior who married and over the threshold Donna he carried.

The friendly senior is Martin Reade;
he is always ready to help a friend in need.

Wayne Smullin, better known as "feet", is the kind of fellow one likes to meet.

The biggest boy of our class is Bill Wallace,
He's not only the widest but the tallest.

Dickie Williams is the quietest of us rarely do you hear him fuss.

Mary Upshur Boggs is always so neat from the top of her head to the toes on her feet.

Barbara Cobb is a senior who types so well
every three seconds you hear her bell.

Carolyn Courtney, Flirt of them all, likes them big, fat or tall.

Kendal East, the girl who has style,
will make you stop and look for a while.

Emily Edwards has her diamond ring; it's those love songs we hear her sing.

JoAnne Gunter, whose mischievous ways we know,
although she is careful not to let them show.

Ida Lynne Harmon is a talented girl; I can't think of anything she can't give a whirl.

Nancy Harmon with that ever roving eye; I haven't seen the boy she would let go by.

Martha Hartman who can swing and sway;
look out football captains going her way.

Pauline Isdell is far from shy, she will surely land her guy.

Faye Layne is the senior with the lovely voice; to listen to her is everyone's choice.

Robin Mason is the dreamer so she tells;
next she will be hearing wedding bells.

Barbie Miles with a smile and looking very neat; Is the kind of girl we all like to meet.

Vera Nicolls to us better known as Pickles, didn't give one boy those cold
"icicles".

Donna Phillips waits for the week day to go by, So she can see her friend from Chinco High.

Emily Pruitt the girl with the lovely hair;
It is easy to tell she handles it with care.

Linda Robbins is the talented artist of our class; Someday we will buy paintings by this lass.

Amiee Savage is the red head of our class;
She is very cute and is a charming lass.

Some say she is married, some say she is not, You know who we mean it's Rosalie Scott.

The quiet girl of our class is Sylvia Scott
You hardly know whether she is in the room or not.

The girl who is most pleasing to talk with is none other than our own Dottie Kay Smith.

To us it seems Mary Asher talks a lot, Once she is started she is hard to stop.

Linda Sweitzer has a fragile head, that she is careful not to let the boys tear apart.

Jane Twyford is one pretty girl who leaves
all the boys in a whirl.

Sandra Williams likes the ranch type of life, She will make some fellow a cheerful wife.

Louise Croston is the new girl in Onancock
High but she will be leaving with us bye and bye.

Last and least is the two of us;
we hope the Seniors will not fuss.

GRADUATION

Graduation time will soon be here,
 It'll bring happiness for some and for others a tear.
 When we look down these halls of ivy,
 And think of the times we've spent,
 We suddenly stop to realize just how fast they went.
 Yes, soon we'll be leaving this ole place,
 And I think if you'll look closely
 There'll be a tear on every face.
 Yes, there have been times that we shall never forget,
 Times that none of us will ever regret,
 Sure, there have been times of sorrow, too,
 Times when you felt oh so blue,
 No, it won't be easy to leave Onancock High,
 And don't feel ashamed if you have to cry,
 It'll just show the goodness in your heart,
 Of how you loved her in the past,
 And memories of the place we love will forever last.
 And when you walk out the door, you'll give a little sigh,
 And you'll turn to look and say,
 Onancock High, goodbye

We, the Senior Class of Onancock High School of 1960, do hereby make, publish, and declare this instrument of writing to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void any other former Wills and/or Codicils by us heretofore made.

Section I

- Article I. To our principal, Mr. Hoppes, we will our admiration and deepest respect.
Article II. To our faculty we will our sincerest thanks for helping us through many despairing moments.
Article III. To the Juniors we will our ability to antagonize the teachers and to misbehave whenever they have the opportunity.

Section II.

- Article I. Tom Barber wills his cute sarcastic remarks to Tommy Hopkins and Jerry Kappes in case they run out of them.
Article II. Mary Upsher Boggs wills her "Woolworth's Originals" to Kitty Rhoades Grey.
Article III. Cecil Bennett wills his ability to skip school to J. D. Small and Coles Marsh.
Article IV. Barbara Ann Cobb wills her speedy Nash to Shirley Windsor in case she gets tired feet.
Article V. Carolyn Courtney and Dottie Kay Smith will their many hair rinses to Kay Drummond.
Article VI. George Cherrix wills himself to Sandy Guy providing they fuss only once a day.
Article VII. Kendal East wills her sophistication to JoAnne Bundick.
Article VIII. Emily Edwards, Robin Mason, and Pauline Isdell will their diamond rings to Berdine Hargis providing she only wears one at a time.
Article IX. Jimmy Custis wills his busy body manner to Mac Chandler and David King.
Article X. JoAnne Gunter and Sulvia Scott will their quiet ways to Janet DoScotch who should take extreme care of them.
Article XI. Billy Drewer wills his ability to "tame those wild ponies" to Norris Barnes.
Article XII. Ida Lynn Harmon wills her eye-catching figure to Eunice Savage providing she distributes it proportionately.
Article XIII. Joe Kamps wills his studious ways to Jackie Harris and Kenneth Ennis.
Article XIV. Nancy Harmon wills her seat in English Class to Linda Sue Cobb so she can become teacher's pet.
Article XV. Martha Hartman wills her favorite book HOW TO CATCH A FOOTBALL CAPTAIN to Beverley Melson.
Article XVI. Tommy Kellam wills his "Big 96" to Scotty Mears.
Article XVII. Jonica Jones wills her agreeable ways to Linda Watkinson.
Article XVIII. Barbie Miles wills her tongue (one you can touch a nose with) to Mary Frances Mears.
Article XIX. Jimmy Lassiter wills his athletic ability to Gerald Kilmon and David Paker.
Article XX. Faye Layne wills her singing voice to Louise Obenshain.
Article XXI. Vera Nicolls wills her athletic ability to Jackie Watson providing she uses it to play ping-pong.
Article XXII. Mack Lazenby wills his parking space at Wise's to Vaughan Davis and Bobby Coard.
Article XXIII. Emily Pruitt and Sandra Williams will their winning smiles to Alice Formyduval if she promises to give it a rest when eating.
Article XXIV. Brooks Mears wills his extra inches in height to Billy Anderson.
Article XXV. Linda Robbins wills all her ex-boyfriends to Bonnie Kellam.
Article XXVI. Tommy Mears wills his "love lines" to Fred Harmon and Joe Christman.
Article XXVII. Amiee Savage wills her talking ability limited to 300 words a minute to Billie Lang.
Article XXVIII. Larry Pruitt wills that sleepy-eyed look to David Johnson.
Article XXIX. Martin Reade wills his weight-lifters and Veronica Lewis to Tommy Jacob.
Article XXX. Donna Phillips wills her wrecked telephone at Chincoteague to Betty Gaye Evans.
Article XXXI. Rosalie Scott wills her excess weight to Dixie Smith.
Article XXXII. Wayne Smullin wills his technique with girls to Tommy Miles and Jerry Lilliston.
Article XXXIII. Dickie Williams wills all his extra A's to John Lambdin.
Article XXXIV. Linda Sweitzer and Mary Asher Shrieves will their acting ability to Bonnie Shreeves.
Article XXXV. Bill Wallace wills his trim physique to Riley Bull and Dale Milliner.
Article XXXVI. Jane Twyford wills her ugly stick to Joye Prior.
